

Jim Tarbell plays "Danny Boy" at the Irish Heritage Center grand opening.

The Erickson Dancers Celli Team perform at the Irish Heritage Center grand opening on Nov. 13.

'A Little Bit of Heaven'

There was plenty of good fun to go around at the Nov. 13 grand opening celebration for the Irish Heritage Center in Columbia Tusculum.

The Center, 3905 Eastern Ave., is housed in the former McKinley School and offers a wide variety of Irish-related cultural events and classes.

Plans are in the works for a music room, library and dance studio. Visit www.irishcenterofcincinnati.com to learn more.

PROVIDED

Nick Clooney, second from right, and the Vice Consul of Ireland Tim Reilly, right, at the Irish Heritage Center with two of the attendees.

Irish Heritage Center founding member Maureen Kennedy, third from right, and friends enjoy the grand opening gala.